We have used Bajaj luminaires in our project of MCA and prebid of GCA stadium project submission. The product quality is good and well appreciated by end user and their maintenance team. Bajaj being the foremost Indian company in the field of lighting, has complete range of product which we had considered for our projects. During the course of the project, the design support extended to my team is well appreciated and has made my task as a Project Management Principal Consultant – MEP that much easier.

It is worth mentioning that their new LED range of products is none less than the quality and standards by any international lighting company.

We look forward to continuous support and relation as business partners for many more prestigious projects in future.

We wish them all the best in their future ventures.
